- Understanding and complying with the general guidelines in the JCQ publication Instructions for conducting controlled assessments;
- Understanding and complying with the awarding body specification for conducting controlled assessments, including any subject specific instructions, teachers' notes or additional information on the awarding body's website;

- Advising on the implementation of access arrangements when required.

Absence

Subject teachers / Heads of Department will accommodate the occasional absence of a candidate by ensuring that an opportunity is given to them to make up missed controlled assessment. An alternative supervised session will be organised for such candidates. Should a candidate miss controlled assessment sessions persistently and/or without prior notice her parents will be contacted to discuss the situation.

Repeat Submission

Candidates who wish to re-do their submission of a controlled assessment before the marks are sent to the awarding body may do so, at the discretion of the Head of Centre, under specified conditions. (see Instructions for conducting controlled assessments 17.1.)

Missed Deadlines

Subject teachers and Heads of Department will make every effort to support candidates so that they submit work to meet published internal deadlines. Where there is a danger of a deadline being missed, the school will contact parents to discuss the matter.

However, the school after published final deadlines will accept no controlled assessment. In such cases the candidate will be given either a mark for any incomplete work submitted or a zero mark if no work is submitted.

Internal Marks

Examination Boards state: All candidates have a right of access to the marks awarded to them by the centre for internal assessment. These marks are shared with candidates and there is a process for appealing these marks should they feel that this is necessary., these marks are then shared with the examination boards and are still subject to the moderation process.

Retention and Return of Controlled Assessment

- In most cases, awarding bodies return centre-assessed work to centres after the publication of results, although they reserve the right to retain samples and also retain work which has been the subject of irregularities or malpractice investigation;
- The school holds controlled assessment securely when it has been returned by the awarding body up to and including the deadline for the submission of enquiries about results and until any enquiry or malpractice investigation has been resolved;
- Any work no longer required will be disposed of in a confidential manner by the school.
- Candidates wishing to reclaim their work must do so in person from the Head of Department by a specified date which will be notified to them when submitting the controlled assessment. After this date all unclaimed controlled assessment will be destroyed as detailed above. [Or give details of a different appropriate procedure adopted by the school.]

Malpractice

Candidates must not:

- submit work which is not their own;
- lend their own work to others or allow their work to be copied;
- allow others access to, or the use of, their own independently sourced material;
- use any books, the internet or other sources without acknowledgement or attribution;
- submit work word processed by a third party or AI without acknowledgement.

These actions constitute malpractice, for which a penalty, (e.g. disqualification from the assessment) will be applied.

- It is the responsibility of the examinations officer to inform candidates of the JCQ regulations concerning malpractice, as detailed in the JCQ booklet Suspected Malpractice in Examinations and Assessments: Policies and Procedures;
- If irregularities in controlled assessments/ NEA/ coursework are discovered prior to the candidate signing the declaration of authentication this will be dealt with under the school's internal procedures. Details of any work, which is not the candidate's own, will be recorded on the authentication form supplied by the awarding body or other appropriate place.
- If the centre identifies irregularities in controlled assessments/ NEA/ coursework after the candidate has signed the declaration of authentication, the Head Maser will submit full details of the case to the relevant awarding body at the earliest opportunity.
- Any use of AI must be declared when submitting work and any element of an NEA where AI has been used, where this element contributes to a specific assessment objective, could result in that objective (and and marks associated with it) being discounted when marking.
